

Programme Outcomes (CBCS)
Semester -1
Political Science (Honours)
Paper -CC1/GE-1: Western Political Thought

After completing the course will be able to -

PO-1 Understanding the fundamental ideas of Classical and Medieval Western Political Thought.

PO-2 Critical thinking about social contract theory and its implications.

PO-3 Analysing the ideas of Liberal and Marxist philosophy.

PO-4 Critical evaluation on the ideas of major Western Political Thinkers like Plato, Aristotle, Machiavelli, Hobbes, Locke, Hegel.

PO-5 Understanding the key debates and ideas in Western Political Thought.

PO-6 Building overall consciousness regarding different approaches like State, Politics, Government and Citizenship.

PO-7 Encouraging a comprehensive and comparative understanding the philosophical visions of the ideal political society.

CC 2/GE-2: Political Theory

After completing this course, will be able to-

PO-1 Political Theory can help the people to understand the problems of the society and explore ways to solve them.

PO-2 Develop the ability to access and evaluate data from various sources of information.

PO-3 Develop research capabilities.

PO-4 Increasing the ability to assess the functioning of the government.

PO-5 Learn about the theories of democracy and State and State sovereignty.

PO-6 Know about contemporary perspectives in political theory.

PO-7 Critically examine the scope, nature of discipline and different approaches to the subject.

PO-8 Have awareness of ethical problems, social rights, values and responsibility to self and others.

PO-9 Understand and follow changes in patterns of political behaviour, ideas and structures.

Sem 2

Paper -CC-3: Indian Political Thought

After completing this course, able to -

PO-1 Understand the following changes in political behaviour, ideas and structures.

PO-2 Learn to analysing, criticizing and defending major political ideologies.

PO-3 Learn about the types of political institutions that should be in place.

PO-4 Examine the necessity of our duties over rights and the theory of basic structure.

PO-5 Indian political thought is based on the primary Sanskrit sources like the Vedas, Dharmasutra, Manusmriti, and Arthashastra.

PO-6 Critically examine the different phases of Indian national movements and their limitations and effects.

Paper: CC -4: Indian Government and Politics

After completing this course, will be able to-

PO-1 Outlining the basic values and philosophy of Indian Constitution as expressed in the Preamble and its fundamental rights and its directive principles.

PO-2 Examining Indian federalism through Centre-state relations.

PO-3 Evaluating the structure and function of Indian Parliament, the executive and legislature.

PO-4 Assessing Judicial Activism and studying the composition and function of Supreme court and High Court and also others.

PO-5 Learn about the composition and creating awareness the function of Election Commission of India and understand how electoral rules affect election outcomes.

PO-6 Know about the basic need of electoral reforms.

PO-7 Evaluating the role of the Constituent Assembly in framing the Indian Constitution.

PO-8 Understanding the power of the President and Prime minister.

PO-9 Examining the role of political parties in Indian Democracy.

PO-10 Creating awareness about social, economic and political variables.