

COURSE OUTCOME PAPERWISE OF NEP 2020

Political Science

Semester -1

Major/DS Course (Core)

Western Political Thought

(4 Credit)

Code: POLS 1011

Course outcome of Western Political Thought

 By completing this course students will be able to:

1. Understand (a) the features of the ancient Greek political thought and (b) Importance of Plato's theory of justice and (c) Aristotle's concept of state.

Judge the main features of mediaeval political thought.

2. Understand the nature of renaissance in Italy and Machiavelli's concept of politics, specially the concept of power and secularization.

3. Appreciate (a) Hobbes's concept of sovereignty and (b) Locke's contribution to liberalism and (c) Rousseau's views on General will which is the foundation of democracy.

4. Appreciate Hegel's theory of state.

5. Understand Marx and Engels's views on socio-political development through Dialectical and Historical Materialism.

6. Perceive ideas of Liberty as developed by J.S.Mill.

Semester -1

Minor Course (Core)

Political Theory

Code: POLS 1021

(4 Credit)

 By completing this course students will be able to:

1. Understand (a) the meaning of Politics and Political Theory, including decline and revival of Political Theory.
(b) Have an overview of different approaches of (i) Traditional (ii) Behavioural/ Post-Behavioural (iii) Marxist
2. Understand and explain the concept of sovereignty and its different varieties.
3. Perceive the meaning of the concept of Right, Liberty, and Equality and their interrelationships.
4. Know about the different views on Liberalism and Neo-Liberalism and understand the basic features.
5. Have an overview of different theory of state.

Semester -1

Multidisciplinary

Course/Interdisciplinary

(MDS/IDS)

Introducing Political Science

Credit -3

Code: POLS 1031

 By completing this course students will be able to:

1. Understand the meaning, nature and scope of Political Science.
2. Have an overview of different approaches of (i) Traditional (ii) Behavioural Approach
3. Know about the origin of the state -(a) Divine Origin Theory (b) Theory of Force, (c) Social Contract Theory (d) Evolutionary Theory.
4. Explain the concept of sovereignty and understand its different varieties.
5. Perceive the meaning of Right, Liberty, and Equality and their interrelationships.
6. Have an overview of different theories of the state.

Semester -1

SEC

Human Rights Education

Credit-3

Code: POLS 1051

 By completing this course students will be able to:

1. Understand the meaning and evolution of the concept of Human Rights.
2. Have an overview of the Indian Constitution and know about the necessity of the protection of Human Rights.
3. Understand the composition and functions of the National Human Rights Commission.
4. Comprehend the basic features of the Human Rights movements in India. To know about the cause and impact of Human Rights Movements in India.
5. Understand (a) the need to protect human rights, (b) know about the necessity of combating against terrorism and counter-terrorism and their interrelationships.

Semester 2

Major/DS Course (Core)

Political Theory

(Credit 4)

Code: POLS 2011

•By completing this course students will be able to:

1 Understand the meaning of Politics and Political Theory including significance of Political Theory.

Have an overview of different approaches to Politics. Understand and evaluate the basic concepts of Traditional approach, Behavioural and Post-Behavioural approaches and Marxist approach.

3. Understand and explain the concept of sovereignty and able to identify its different varieties.

4. Perceive the meaning of the concept of Rights , Liberty and Equality and their interrelationships.

5. Explain the concept of justice with special emphasis on John Rawls's contribution.

6. Explain (a) the meaning of ideology and (b) have an overview of different kind of ideologies.

7. Have an overview of different theory of state.

Semester-2

Minor Course

India Government and Politics

Credit:4

Code: POLS 2021

 By completing this course students will be able to:

1. Have an idea of composition and role of the Constituent Assembly of India.
2. Have an overview of the nature of Fundamental Rights and Duties and Directive Principles of state policy.
3. Understand the nature of Indian Federalism and its tension areas.
4. Understand the organisational composition and functions of Union Legislature, State Legislature, functions of law -making procedures in Indian Parliament with special focus on the role of the speaker and the Constitutional Amendment Process.
5. Appreciate the powers and functions of the Union as well as of State Executives.
6. Understand the composition and functions of the Supreme Court and the High Courts.
7. Have an overview of the party system in India with special focus on recent trends, namely Coalition governments.
8. Understand the composition and functions of Election commission and know about the process of electoral system in India. And know about the necessity of electoral reforms.

Semester -2

Multidisciplinary Course/ Interdisciplinary Course

(MDS/IDS)

Course-1

Introducing Indian Constitution

Credit -3

Code: POLS 2031

•By completing this course students will be able to:

1. Have an idea on salient features of the Indian Constitution and its Preamble.
2. Have an overview of the nature of Fundamental Rights and Duties and Directive Principles of state policy.
3. Understand the nature of Indian Federalism.
4. Understand and explain the composition and functions of Union Legislature and know about the role of the speaker of Parliament.
5. Appreciate the powers and functions of President and Prime Minister as an Union executive as well as State executive of Governor and Chief Minister.
6. Understand the composition and functions of the Supreme Court and the High Courts.
7. Have an overview of the Indian party system with special reference to recent trends namely Coalition Governments.

Semester 2

SEC

Legislative Support

Credit -3

Code: POLS 2051

 By completing this course students will be able to:

1. Appreciate the powers and functions of People's representatives at different tiers of governance. And know about the role of MP and MLA.
2. Understand and Assess the law -making procedures in Indian Parliament with special focus on role of committees.
3. Able to explain the procedure of Budget -making system in Parliament.
4. Evaluate and judge the function of Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs and External Affairs.
5. Know about the necessity of NITI Ayog. And acquire knowledge about composition and functions of NITI Ayog.